BUSINESS BACKGROUND

Locally owned and operated family business for over 21 years, Tasmanian Trophy House has grown into the largest respected business of it's type in Southern Tasmania established in 1967. It is synonymous with customers in it's genre, not only with the supply and engraving of trophies, but also for specialising in Tasmanian handmade timber trophies and numerous other Giftwares and accessories – world class in quality.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Perfect opportunity for an individual owner operator or couple to manage, this business is unique in that there is limited competition from other retailers of its type, so repeat business from established sporting clubs and individual customers is ensured into the future, with established relationships fostered over decades of goodwill

OWNER TRANSITION

The current owners looking forward to retirement, will ensure a seamless transition for the new owner by practically sharing of their extensive knowledge and experience with the new owner(s) along with all required business training.

LOCATION

Located in the retail heart of the Hobart CBD between Liverpool and Bathurst Streets, in Mathers Lane, adjoining Criterion Lane and opposite Hobarts iconic new Myer building. Well known in the area, The 2 lanes around Tas Trophy House, consist of a variety of large & small shops and cafes with parking available nearby.

SHOP DESCRIPTION

Modern & appealing on the outside offering 160m² (approx) gross lettable area, level access shop entry and dual entry from both Mathers Lane & Mathers Arcade. Well equipped visually with dual full length windows providing lots of natural light and display frontage. Inside The floorplan has spacious public shopping floor space for merchandising plus 2 adjoining storerooms, one very large (approx. 9m x 5m) with separate goods display door perfect for private office & lunchroom, the other approx. 6m x 2m on other side of shop.

IMPROVEMENTS

With improvements to the aesthetics over recent years and upgrade of Mathers house and hall, the lane and adjoining areas are a destination in themselves, providing seating and meeting areas for over 50 people, and is a small oasis from the busy shopping or working schedule for city commuters hosting craft, dancing and small exhibitions at times throughout the year.

ZONING

The property is zoned "Central Retail" under the Hobart Planning Scheme.
